AIA does the following work:

Promotion for Multicultural Society

● Consultation for Foreign Residents ●

Hours : Every Thursday 13 : 00~15 : 00
English · Chinese · Korean · Japanese
※Reservation Required for other languages.

● AIA community supporters and volunteers ●

We are looking for people to help out in translation/interpretation fields, or in presenting about your home country or the country you are currently staying in.

We are also looking to establish volunteers for host families, events, and conversation.

● Visiting and Lectures at AIA ●

We teach students from elementary school through university about AIA's programs and also accept students for internships.

※Our association's JICA Akita desk will respond to matters regarding international cooperation.

A multicultural society refers to a society composed of people of different nationalities and ethnic groups living together as members of a community who acknowledge cultural differences and strive for equality.

Support for Private Organization

● Support for cultural exchange groups ●

AIA provides grant money to community groups involved with international activities.

AIA promotes enrollment into the Akita Network of International Community Groups and promotes the groups' activities to the citizens of Akita.

● Information through our website and Facebook ●

We publish information on our website in English, Chinese, Korean, and Japanese. We also make it easy to receive information through our Facebook.

Providing information and Opportunities for International Activities

● Akita International Festival 2017 ●

The AIA International Festival is an annual festival that seeks to deepen interest in multicultural understanding and cultural exchange through home country displays by people of different national backgrounds residing in Akita and booths introducing the activities of cultural exchange groups. AIA will host the Akita International Festival at Aeon Mall (Goshono, Akita City) on Sunday, Sep. 30 .

● Multicultural Exchange Space ●

- Events (International Cafe, English children's books reading, etc.)
- National flags and ethnic costumes rental
- UNICEF library series
