AIA does the following work

Promoting a multicultural society

A multicultural society refers to a society composed of people of different nationalities and ethnic groups living together as members of the community who acknowledge cultural differences and strive for equality.

Consultation for Foreign Residents

AIA provides telephone and mail consultation service for foreigners who living in Akita.
For matters such as residence permits, medical issues, education, Japanese language classes, interpretation/translation, international marriage / divorce, etc.

※ Please check the service time and languages on the back.

AIA Community Supporters and Volunteers

We are looking for people to register as “AIA Community Supporters” who are willing to interpret, translate or introduce the culture of their home country.
We also have other programs like “Host Family Volunteers” and “Conversation Volunteers”.

Akita Japanese Language Supporters

We are registering people, who have an interest in teaching Japanese to foreign nationals, or who have an interest in Japanese language instruction, as Akita Japanese Language Supporters.
We then match them with requests for personal language instruction, Japanese language instruction conferences, and so on.

Revitalising the activities of private organizations

Support for International Exchange organizations

AIA provides subventions for private organizations in fields of international activities. By promoting the registration for Akita International Relations Network (AIR), we aim to introduce their activities to the wider public in the prefecture.

Offering information, opportunities, etc. for international exchange and related matters

Organizing Akita International Festival

AIA international festival is an annual festival with the aims to deepen interest in international exchange and multicultural understanding through the cultural introduction by foreign residents and activities introduction by international exchange organizations.

The festival of 2025 will be held on 5 October (Sunday) at Akita community-based center “ALVE”.

Disseminating information through our website and social media

To foreign nationals living in Japan, we are offering necessary information related to daily life, international exchange, and so on, through our website (English, Chinese, Korean, and Japanese), our Facebook, and other social media.
